Just for the Record..

EDITOR'S NOTE: In order to complete the record of everything that was used in the campaign to abolish the office of County School Supervisor we are printing below what the editor said over KXAR this morning (Election Day) in an appeal to get out the vote. The editor recorded this one-minute spot Monday afternoon. It was broadcast 18 times Tuesday morning between 6 and 12:35 p. m. Because of the unfriendly income tax picture the editor picked up the tab personally as a non-deductible item, totaling $25.20.

This is Alex. Washburn, editor of the Hope Star. The reason I am here is to ask you to go to the polls and vote in the annual school election today.

The main question in this election is: Can we abolish the obsolete and costly office of County School Supervisor?

State law says we can. But doing it is something else: The business of retaining a lawyer, researching the tax figures at the courthouse, circulating a petition, nominating a candidate for the County Board of Education — and finally getting him elected.

The key to this campaign is the County Board of Education, which is the body that hires or fires the School Supervisor. One man on the Board, Ralph Lehman, already is pledged to fire the Supervisor. Today we are voting on a second pledged candidate.

I urge you to get out and vote today for Herbert M. Stephens. If he wins we stand a chance to gain control of the five-man board and abolish the Supervisor's office — on the grounds that the people have spoken.

Can the office of Supervisor be abolished? Thanks to Hope Star and Herbert M. Stephens you'll get a chance to answer that question at the polls today.

Everybody on the other side will vote — Supervisor Elmer Brown and his organized allies. What will YOU do?

Stay home with your alibi? Or resolve to do something new and courageous for your county and schools — and get out and vote for Herbert M. Stephens today.

Change in Street Names Is Protested

Hope's Board of Directors yesterday met with a group of citizens on Fifth, Sixth and Seventh streets protesting a change in the name of streets.

The City Planning Board changed the street names to make them conform throughout the city. This addresses had to be changed and this is what residents protest.

The residents were advised they should meet with the Planning Board and not the Directors.

The group passed a five mill ad valorem tax, which is no new tax but had to be voted on every year.

The annual Christmas bonus of $20 per worker was okayed for city employees.

Lions Auction Gets Off to Slow Start

Hope's Lions Club auction got off to a very slow start last night with only $200 sales. The auction is from 5:30 to 9:30 p. m. tonight and Wednesday night at a downtown building formerly occupied by Keesey shoe store.

The club annually fills about 100 baskets worth from $15 to $16 and distributes them to needy families at Christmas time. So about $1,600 is needed from the auction.

So join the "goodfellows" tonight and telephone a bid on some article at PK 7-6781.

Macmillan to Meet Kennedy in Bermuda

By JOHN M. NIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan will meet in Bermuda Dec. 21 and 22 to outline final strategy for possible Berlin negotiations with the Soviet Union.

The White House announced plans for the conference late Monday.

In addition to their policy talks on Berlin, Kennedy and Macmillan are expected to discuss disarmament negotiations and a course for an agreement to end nuclear weapons testing under an international inspection system. They may issue some new call for cooperation by the Soviet Union to bring the nuclear race under control.

Diplomatic informants in London said Kennedy and Macmillan also were expected to discuss the negotiations now in progress to bring Britain into the European Common Market, ways of tightening Western defenses and the probable meaning of the recent Communist party congress in Moscow and the new de-Stalinization wave it launched.

Administration hopes for steady progress toward East-West negotiations on Berlin received a setback over the weekend with blunt Communist rejection of Kennedy's suggestion last week for international control of the access routes to West Berlin across East Germany.

Apparently Kennedy aides had expected a more positive or encouraging response. The Soviet government newspaper Izvestia which published an interview with the President last week said the idea of putting the supply lines to West Berlin under international administration was "doomed to failure."

Walter Ulbricht, Communist party chief in East Germany, also threw down the suggestion. The Soviet and East German claim is that the United States, Britain, France and West Germany will have to deal with the East German regime to secure their routes to Berlin.

Officials here said that there was no emergency in the Kennedy-Macmillan decision to meet in Bermuda. The White House announcement at London said simply that the two leaders felt it would be useful to have an informal discussion of the international situation.

The official statements also linked the Bermuda conference with "the series of bilateral meetings which are now taking place between the heads of some of the Western governments."

Fails to Get a New Trial

WASHINGTON (AP)—Clarence Stewart Jr., 23, a Negro sentenced to death for the fatal stabbing of an elderly white man in a $29 robbery in North Little Rock, has failed in an attempt to get a hearing before the U.S. Supreme Court.

The court denied the hearing Monday although Justice William O. Douglas said he felt the court should hear Stewart's appeal on the contention that Negroes were discriminated against in selection of the Pulaski Circuit Court jury.

The Arkansas Supreme Court upheld the conviction for the slaying of William N. Caldwell, 79.

KXAR Will Give Election Returns

Returns from the annual school election in Hempstead county will be broadcast over Radio Station KXAR tonight (Tuesday). Manager Haskell Jones said today.

KXAR is running the Lions Club Christmas Auction tonight, and the election returns will be given between auction sales, Mr. Jones said.

County Clerk Dick Turnage will keep open the county clerk's office in the courthouse tonight until all boxes are turned in to him. Election officials are requested to get their boxes to the courthouse just as soon as the count is completed.

Tally sheets or at least a copy of same should be kept outside the boxes so the results can be made known at once. In times past some tally sheets have been accidentally locked up with the box, delaying publication of the returns.

Udall Ordered Off of Farm in Kansas

MANHATTAN, Kan. (AP)—An irate rancher ordered an inspection party including Secretary of the Interior Stewart L. Udall from a 1,000-acre grazing area Monday.

Udall's party, traveling in two helicopters, was viewing the site of the proposed Prairie National Park and setting down at various points.

At one stopping point Carl Belling, 50, ordered Udall and his party from the property. Asked if he owned the property, Belling told Udall and Rep. William H. Avery, R-Kan., that he didn't, but that he had leased it for grazing and had "the owner's authority to put you off."

The inspection party promptly took off.

Udall later said the rancher's stand was a very human reaction, but he added: "We recognize that some owners would not like to give up their property but if we're going to save a few pieces for future generations, someone has to give."

"This is the first time in my life I've ever been run off a ranch, but I've been chased out of mine," Udall said.

He was referring to an incident last May in Seneca, Md., when he and a group of hikers, including Justice William O. Douglas and Sen. Paul Douglas, approached the Old Anglers' Inn, operated by Mrs. John T. Regis. The group had just completed a 16-mile hike through a rainstorm.

When Udall started to enter, Mrs. Regis ordered him not to come in because of the condition of his clothes. He ate his lunch outside in the rain.

Monday's episode was the prelude to a meeting at Westminster, Kan., by a group of farmers and ranchers opposed to the projected park. About 125 persons attended the meeting and banded Udall a petition signed by 300 persons opposing the park.

Udall said he was sympathetic over the disruption of the rancher's lives, but he predicted everyone would be better off in 10 years if the park project went through.

Belling, who shook hands with Udall before the party took off at his order, said later he had nothing against Udall personally. He was critical, though, of a statement by National Park Service officials that a portion of the prairie must be preserved now or never.

"What do they mean, preserved?" he asked. "This pasture is in a lot better shape today than it was 40 years ago."

Belling said his chief complaints against the park are that it would displace the ranchers or cut up their property and might raise property taxes.

"They haven't given us any inkling of what we will be paid for the land. Udall said we will be 'well paid,' but I'm like the mule. I'm a little leary of a statement like that."

He indicated it wasn't an accident that he encountered Udall's party.

"I figured that would be a likely spot for them to land and I drove out there in a pickup truck." He understood other ranchers were spotted at other points, but the party landed four times without other protests.

The proposal to establish Prairie National Park has been under study since the 1930s by the National Park Service and various groups.

In April 1959 establishment of the park was recommended by the advisory board on national parks. Congress has to approve the project. Avery, who represents this district, has introduced a bill to establish the park.

PSC Recesses Phone Hearing

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Public Service Commission recessed Monday a hearing on a telephone service hearing involving 35 rural residents of Woodruff County, who favor direct service from Augusta rather than Tupelo.

The residents told the PSC Monday that their social and business interests prompted their request for the change.

The recess was called to enable Southwestern Bell Co. telephone and General Telephone Co. to develop cost estimates not now available. A new hearing date will be set.

General has an exchange in Augusta, but Southwestern Bell wants to tie the area to a new exchange in Tupelo and link it to Newport. Any calls from the area to Augusta would be long distance. General would operate the calls on a local basis.

Southwestern Bell was given the area in July.

Asia-Africans Rip U. S. on China Stand

By TOM HOGE

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—A concerted Asian-African attack on the U. S. attempt to bar Red China from the United Nations built up steam today as the General Assembly buckled down to a long, stormy debate on the Chinese seating issue.

Ceylon, one of 17 Asian-African nations which has diplomatic relations with Peking, launched the drive Monday with one of the sharpest assaults ever made in the United Nations on Washington's China policy.

Ceylonese Ambassador G. P. Malasekera charged that the United States was building up a "wall of hatred" between the American and Chinese people that could lead to World War III.

He assailed U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson's speech to the assembly urging the United Nations to keep the door closed to Red China.

"There are apparently not only two Chinas in American thinking, but also two Stevensons," the Ceylonese declared. "There is the Stevenson of the brilliant premises, and alas, to my disappointment, the Stevenson of the same old conclusions."

Communist China, warned Malasekera, will soon become a nuclear power.

"When that day comes," he said, "the United States will be confronted by two mighty nuclear powers, and that two-front war which was America's nightmare in World War II will re-emerge as the double nuclear front of the future."

Delegates anticipated a lot more strong words against America's China policy from a parade of other Asian-African nations including India, which for 11 years has led the drive to seat Peking in place of Nationalist China.

With no speakers still listed to take part, assembly consideration of the issue is expected to continue until Christmas, dashing any hopes that the assembly session will end before the New Year.

Contracts Let

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Contracts totaling $4,940,721 have been let for the Thomas B. Fitzhugh steam generating plant under construction near Ozark, an official of Burns & McDonnell design and engineering told Arkansas Electric Co-op members at their meeting Monday. Work on the plant was authorized a year ago. Equipment is being manufactured and shipment should begin in April.

Mena Home Antics in Other Areas

MENA, Ark. (AP)—The C. E. Shinn family left their home again Monday night because "things were getting too bad," but two outsiders spent several hours and reported they saw only one thing out of the ordinary.

Mr. and Mrs. Shinn and a grandson left the house, near Mena, about 10 p. m. despite an earlier statement by Shinn that he didn't believe in ghosts and the family would stay after leaving once and then returning.

A radio announcer and an ex-Marine friend stayed at the house with the Shinn's permission, until early today. They became the ninth and 10th outsiders to watch since the strange happenings were first reported by the Shinn's.

Mrs. Shinn said that within a five-minute period before they left Monday night, two gallon jugs were broken on her front porch, a straight chair was thrown about 35 feet into the yard and two light bulbs burst, leaving them in darkness.

There were other similar, equally-mysterious happenings, she said.

Mrs. Shinn said the occurrences rarely take place when the family is not at home and that is the way it was Monday night and early today.

Ray Green of station KAJI at Little Rock took a tape recorder to the home.

He was accompanied by Bill Fulton, also of Little Rock.

Green reported that once after using the telephone, the instrument, seemingly motivated by some mysterious force, moved backward almost a full inch.

Aside from an unexplained wheezy noise, that was the only incident, Green said.

Sheriff Bruce Scoggins, three other officers and four newsmen previously had spent a night at the house but said they heard or saw nothing out of the ordinary.

The Shinn's said they had kept the mystery a secret for more than a year because they were afraid people would think them crazy. It came to light last week.

Voting Is Heavier Than Usual in School Election

Voting was much heavier than usual in the annual school election here today with 175 votes cast at 11 a. m. In a normal school election about 100 votes are cast. But this time several controversial issues are on the ballot.

Two districts are voting on millage increases while every district in the county is voting on a County Board member at large. In the latter Herbert Stephens, Blevins, pledged to try and abolish the office of county supervisor, is opposed by Dr. Forney Holt, a former principal of Hope High School. Hope District 1-A School Board is seeking a millage increase of five mills while Saratoga District is asking voters to approve a 10 mill increase.

All three issues have been highly controversial during the short pre-election campaign. Voting is expected to pick up during the noon hour and late this afternoon when workers are enroute home.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Bond proposals ranging from $4.5 million at Little Rock to $400,000 issues at eight other school districts will be voted on in Tuesday's school election.

The Arkansas bond issue elections in 46 districts total over $17 million while 60 of the 418 districts will seek millage increases to finance bonds or to raise additional operating funds.

Most school board elections across the state will arouse little attention but in Texarkana a Negro is seeking to join the board.

20 Students Hurt in Bus Accident

PARAGOULD, Ark. (AP)—A school bus and a truck collided on state Highway 25 Monday and 20 children were slightly injured. Three were treated at a hospital and released and the other 17 received first aid for scratches and bruises.

State Trooper Charles Hampton said the truck, driven by Willard Pruett, 55, of Paragould, collided with the bus on the bus' side of the highway. The bus driver, Herbert Christian, 17, of Paragould, was not hurt.

Hampton said charges of driving on the wrong side of the road were filed against Pruett.

The bus was demolished and the 17 children were taken on to the Crowley Ridge Academy in another bus. First aid was applied there.

Treated and released at a Paragould hospital were Brad Rice, 8, and Carol Spikes, 15, of Paragould and Kathy Radberry, 11, of Walnut Ridge.

Beil proposes to serve the area through an exchange to be built at Tupelo, which is nearer the disputed territory than is Augusta. The difference is that Bell's service would make any call to Augusta a long distance call. Bell would provide a connect to Newport on a local call basis.

If the territory is allocated to General, however, the local call connection would be to Augusta.

UN Troops in Congo Fight to Restore Order

By JOHN LATZ

ELISABETHVILLE, Katanga, the Congo (AP)—Widespread fighting broke out between U.N. forces and President Moise Tshombe's Katanga troops in Elisabethville today. Many people fled the city in panic.

Foreign Minister Evariste Kibona, ranking Katanga official in the absence of Tshombe, charged the United Nations started the shooting and declared, "Katanga will fight and defend itself."

He listed nine wounded so far on Katanga's side but said he did not know the extent of U.N. casualties.

The sound of mortar and other firing from several directions started a panic exodus from this capital of secessionist Katanga Province.

PSC Hears Testimony in Phone Case

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Five witnesses testified before the Arkansas Public Service Commission today that a nine-square mile area of Woodruff County should get telephone service from the Augusta Exchange of General Telephone Co.

The witnesses are residents of the area, which was allocated by the PSC to Southwestern Bell Telephone Co., last July 7. They were among 35 persons who petitioned the commission to re-allocate the territory to General.

Testimony of the five consumed the morning session of a PSC hearing. Testimony was to resume in the afternoon.

Mrs. William O'Shields said her social and business contacts were with Augusta and she would rather have telephone service from there. Testimony of other witnesses was in the same vein.

General Telephone is not contesting the territory, which does not now have telephone service. It was unallocated territory before the PSC gave it to Bell last July.

Beil proposes to serve the area through an exchange to be built at Tupelo, which is nearer the disputed territory than is Augusta. The difference is that Bell's service would make any call to Augusta a long distance call. Bell would provide a connect to Newport on a local call basis.

If the territory is allocated to General, however, the local call connection would be to Augusta.

Thurmon Charge Flatly Denied

WASHINGTON (AP)—The State Department Monday flatly denied Sen. Strom Thurmond's charge that it has prepared a document proposing U.S. nuclear weapons be turned over to the United Nations.

Press Officer Joseph Reap said he received inquiries about the charge, made by the South Carolina senator in a speech in Little Rock last Saturday night.

"There is no such paper," Reap said. "The United States has presented to the United Nations a program for general and complete disarmament in a peaceful world which is designed to control and eventually eliminate armaments. This program is a matter of public record."

port, vital for supplying U.N.
forces.

Contrary to the spirit of an agreement that appeared to have eased tension over the barricades, Urquhart said Katanga troops had been discovered advancing through thick brush toward the U.N.-held airport. He charged this was a "final act of bad faith."

Mortar fire and other heavy firing were heard outside the telegraph office, near U.N. headquarters, in the direction of the airport seven miles outside the city and elsewhere.

The Elisabethville radio antenna was damaged by shelling, halting communications with the outside world for a short time.

The firing later stopped and Elisabethville showed signs of slowly coming back to life again after the first shock of the afternoon fighting.

The fighting was the second round of hostilities between U.N.
and Katanga forces.

On Sept. 13, U.N. forces moved into Elisabethville and occupied several important points in an effort to rid the secessionist province of foreign mercenaries alleged to be undermining efforts to bring Katanga back under the wings of the central government in Leopoldville.

The fighting ended in a cease-fire agreement after U.N. Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold lost his life in an airplane crash en route to truce talks. But inter-

Relations under the truce worsened after Tshombe made his
"poisoned arrow" speech in response to new U.N. Security Council orders to the U.N. Command
"poisoned arrow" speech in remove the mercenaries. The resolution declared Katanga's succession illegal.

"We don't all have rifles and automatic weapons but we do have our poisoned arrows, spears, knives and axes," Tshombe said.

The fighting broke out today after Foreign Minister Evariste Kim-ba, acting as ranking official in the absence of Tshombe in Paris, agreed to removal of a road block thrown up Monday between the airport and the city. Indian troops guard the airport.

Urquhart said the Katangans not only did not carry out the agreement but set up other barriers isolating Swedish and Irish U.N. camps from the city.

Then the U.N. official announced the discovery of a Katanga battle plan, and said fighting was unavoidable.

He said Katanga ministers, quitting the capital, handed over government affairs to the province's military command.

Katanga workers began fleeing their jobs and an exodus from the city began.

Panic broke out in the streets.
Some Africans ran from the town
Others headed for the railroad station.

LEOPOLDVILLE. The -Congo
(AP) — Acting U.N. Secretary
General U. Thant today gave "carte blanche" or full discretionary power to U.N. authorities in the Congo to restore order in Katanga.

A U.N. spokesman announced that Swedish troops have been flown into Elisabethville where the U.N. and Katangan troops started fighting today.

Dr. Sture Linner, head of the U.N. in the Congo, was in radio-teletype communication with headquarters in New York.

After these consultations, the secretary general authorized Lin-ner to take whatever action he sees fit in Katanga, the official spokesman said.

The Swedish troops were landed at Elisabethville Airport without any trouble, the spokesman said, adding: "We are in full control of the airport."

Originally the Swedes were intended to replace a Swedish contingent now serving in Katanga.

"Now they will reinforce them, not replace them," the spokesman said.

The United Nations announced today that 38 Katanga police and paracommandos were counted dead after the military action at a roadblock on the route to Elis-abethville Airport. The U.N. said two European mercenary officers also have been killed in the action.

"Over My Dead Body!" Says Mama

By HELEN WOREN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: The other night my stepfather told me to get out of the house and stay out. "She goes over my dead body," said Mama. I screamed, "I will go where nobody can find me." Mama said if I went she'd call the police and have me brought back. Being under age, I'm only 17, I can do nothing. Mama feels just as I do about my stepfather. She's told him again and again to leave but he stays on to fight. East and West Berlin have nothing on our home. I'd do anything to get away from him. As this is I'm here very little, having a good job as secretary in a big firm and modeling three nights a week. I make money and that infuriates the old bully because in a sense it gives me independence.

season. Mrs. S. H. Warmack opened the meeting with prayer after which the treasurer, Mrs. D. G. Richards had collection of dues and also the annual Wilson Phillips offering for Missionaries. Minutes were read and approved. Mrs. D. G. Richards gave the treasurer's report for the quarter. Mrs. T. S. McDavitt read the story of the birth of Jesus from Luke after which Mrs. Ralph Routen voiced a prayer. Mrs. Warmack gave a Christmas story "The keeper of the inn."

During the social hour the hostesses served a Christmas lunch to 14 members and 1 visitor, Mrs. Hattie Russell, Mrs. Mildred Trotter was a new member.

Forest Chief Is Visiting State

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—Dr. Richard E. McArdle, chief of the Forest Service, U.S. Department of Agriculture, arrived here Sunday for a two-day visit in the Ouachita National Forest.

Dr. McArdle will take a look at the national forest program of this area. During his visit, he'll see some of the activities and discuss the multiple-use programs with Forest Supervisor J. T. Koch and his staff.

solution but, from what your daughter says, the situation has gone beyond that. In any event, it's up to you, as the mother, to take charge.

Dear Helen: What can a man do to see his children? By court order I am supposed to have the privilege of seeing my three youngsters twice a week but my former wife blocks me at every turn. She's married again, moved away and taken our children with her. Should I leave them to their fate or fight for my rights?—F.

Dear F.: See the judge whom granted you the right. This is a matter for the courts, not you, to press. For the sake of your children, let it remain impersonal.

Dear Helen: What is the age for true love? I was in a hospital three weeks. An angel—well, she's an angel to me—was put in the room across the hall. We soon discovered that we were both 14, in the ninth grade at school and liked the same things. For me it was love at first sight. I was discharged from the hospital last Saturday and may never see my angel again. I know her address and telephone number. Am I too young to make use of them?—L.

Dear L.: Children do fall seriously in love, even though their elders may smugly term it puppy love. Dante, the Italian poet, was only nine when he fainted at sight of his Beatrice. Why not write "Angel" a little note and send with it flowers to welcome her home? The next move will be hers.

Send your problem to Helen Worden Erskine care of this newspaper and be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope. Helpful leaflets available. Write for "Step-children."

Student Wins First Place
Six students of Yerger High School attended the Fourth Annual Press Workshop at Jones High School, North Little Rock, Saturday, Dec. 2.

There were three sections of the workshop, Newspaper, Yearbook and Photography. Yerger chose the newspaper section under the instruction of Herman Guy, publisher of the Southern Mediator Journal, Little Rock.

Miss Mattie Rutherford, 10th grader of Yerger won first place with an editorial "Education Pays" Mattie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Rutherford and is also "Miss Yerger High." A picture and the editorial will be published in the SMJ.

Also attending were El Davis Colbert, Richard Nimmer, Mary Allen, Muriel Jamison, Callie Hicks, Mrs. Ruth Love, A. B. McQuary and Mrs. Gwendolyn Twillie.

There were about 50 students present. Horace Mann, Almyra and Jones High served as hosts.

Licensed by Court
LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Frederic Kessler of Fayetteville was licensed by the Arkansas Supreme Court today to practice law in Arkansas.

Earl Jones, 26, of Chicago, were arrested at the home of their grandfather in Gadsden, Ala., Friday night and charged in a $400 liquor store holdup here two nights earlier. The younger Jones, who says he had been home on leave from the Army in Munich, Germany, had Shibe's credit card.

GI Admits Going on a Killing Spree
CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP)—A pimply-faced, duck-tailed GI who boasted "You can't fry me but once" has told police of a three-week killing spree from Chicago to Chattanooga.

The soldier, Robert Allen Jones, 18, was charged today with murder in the death of Chattanooga cab driver John P. Wornack, 28, last week. Officers said Jones also admitted shooting Gerald Shibe, 53, of Seymour, Ind., Nov. 14.

In both cases, he said, he shot and robbed his victims. But he added disgustedly, "I only got $15 from the cabbie. It wasn't even worth my time and trouble."

Officers said he sold Shibe's car, in which the Indiana man gave him a ride, in Chattanooga last week.

Officers said Jones told them he killed "four and possibly five" men in the Chicago area. None of these deaths had been confirmed, the detective chief, M. W. Upchurch, said, but Chicago officers are expected here to question him.

"I ain't got nothing to lose and there is no doubt that I'm going to burn, so I might as well tell you everything," Jones said.

L. R. Has Chance for New Plant
LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Officials of the Duro-Test Corp., producers of electric light bulbs, say they are impressed with Little Rock in their search for a site for a new $4.5 million plant to employ 1,800 workers.

G. M. Tuppen of Little Rock, a vice president and director of Duro-Test, said also under consideration are Montgomery, Ala., and an unnamed New Jersey city.

The company said it would require $2.5 million to finance construction of a 563,000-square foot plant.

Officials here said this factor could be endorsed by the city government and underwritten by the investment firm of Stephens, Inc.

National Loop Holds Annual Draft

By JOE MOOSHL
Associated Press Sports Writer
CHICAGO (AP)—The drafting of players has been completed by both the National and American Football Leagues. Now comes the one which pays off—the bank draft.

The National Football League conducted its player procurement program Monday by grabbing 280 players in 20 rounds. Wash- ington's winless Redskins got the No. 1 pick and chose halfback Ernie Davis of Syracuse, the Heisman Trophy winner.

The AFL held its draft Saturday. Both leagues, on the whole, had the same players in their early round selections, setting the stage for another spiral of bonuses and big money contracts.

Davis typified what is expected to be the bartering tempo between the two leagues. Previously drafted by Buffalo of the American League, Davis said: "I'll go where I can get the best deal, be happy and have a long future, supplemented by a good off-season job."

Also a factor in the bidding will be the Canadian Football League in its annual drive to get U.S. college stars. The NFL draft turned into a telephone marathon with each team trying to contact prospects to learn if they have signed elsewhere and if they will be available to play professional football.

After two rounds of haggling, Commissioner Pete Rozelle put a limit of 15 minutes for each team to determine its selection. Even so, the first four rounds took up seven hours. The 20th and final round was completed after 14 hours about 1:30 a.m.

Los Angeles snatched the next two top choices after Washington had selected Davis. The Rams, by virtue of a previous swap of draft choices, selected quarter- back Roman Gabriel of North Carolina State and then picked Merlin Olsen of Utah State in its own right.

Dallas was up next, but it had traded its rights to Cleveland and the Browns selected end Gary Collins of Maryland. When the time came for Cleveland to choose, the selection was half- back Leroy Jackson of Western Illinois.

This led to speculation that Washington might trade Davis—the first Negro player it ever had drafted—to Cleveland for Collins and halfback Bobby Mitchell, a proven NFL star who played college football at Illinois. Both clubs denied such a deal was in the works.

Pittsburgh made fullback Bob Ferguson of Ohio State its No. 1 choice, and the St. Louis Cardinals picked tackle Fate Echols of Northwestern and then added center Irvin Goode of Kentucky because of a previous trade of draft selections with Philadelphia.

The Chicago Bears went to full- back Ron Bull of Baylor; San Francisco chose Lance Alworth of Arkansas; Baltimore took half- back Wendell Harris of LSU; Detroit picked quarterback John Hadl of Kansas; New York's se- lection was end Jerry Hillbrand of Colorado; and Green Bay grabbed Earl Gros of LSU.

Chapter XX
Not phoning was the kind of thing that Philip would do, airy, high-handed, putting himself first, and for which he would have an engaging explanation later. Margaret realized how completely her feeling for Philip had changed. The remnants of love had become—if not suspicion what was it?

Hilary was playing with the puppet Kincaid had brought her, dangling it absently over the edge of her bed. Her bent position and the exertion of not tangling the strings turned her face an alarming red. Margaret persuaded her to sit high against banked pillows instead, felt her hands, looked for the jar of jam she had left there because Hilary never took aspirin without it, found it, a mass of strawberries and smashed glass under the bureau, and gazed inquiringly at Hilary.

Hilary saw the glance coming. "Does your friend Mr. Kincaid know Mrs. Foale?"

Does he indeed? "No. What happened to the jam?"

"It broke."

"I thought it just might have," said Margaret pleasantly, with a vision of herself squeezing out a sponge implanted with jagged slivers, "and I think I remember telling you that it certainly would if you went anywhere near it."

Effortlessly, Hilary's face took on a downcast expression. "I thought it might be good for my throat, like honey only you never buy any honey and I didn't want to bother you."

"Oh. Well, thank you, Hilary," said Margaret contentedly. "That was very thoughtful."

There was no, more jam, only marmalade. Hilary took her aspirin in that, shuddering prolongedly, while Margaret picked the biggest pieces of glass out of the heaped strawberries, cut herself in spite of her care, and finally resorted to wet paper towels.

When she had finished and stood up rather tiredly—at least this was jam, not blood, her mind said—Hilary was subdued. "I asked about Mr. Kincaid because doesn't this look kind of like Mrs. Foale?"

The puppet danced jerkily on the bedspread. It was a woman in a bright cotton fiesta dress, the crude wooden face adorned with black-rimmed eyes, curved and expressionless black eyebrows, a red puppet smile that didn't know what was going on above. Hilary moved a finger, possibly by accident, and the black-painted head dropped senselessly down on the blue and orange breast.

"I think it does," said Hilary fondly, and Margaret said with an effort, "Well, maybe."

She had only needed a jiggling wooden little Mrs. Foale, capable of sudden grinning leaps and fallings, to make her day perfect. No, she hadn't needed it. The memory of Hilary's shadowed and foolish smile, his nightmare ringing of the door, her own iron refusal were quite enough.

She was obstructing justice, probably by not reporting the time and the exact spot on San

Objectives Set by Legislators
LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A speakers bureau and a 10-point statement of objectives have been set up by a group of legislators in their first step seeking to organize better state government through a new constitution.

The organization, known as Democrats for Better Government, says it will attempt to get candidates for next year's election to endorse their ideas.

Plans call for the group to furnish speakers to college and civic groups,

Alabama Voted Nation's Best Football Team

By BOB HOOBING
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Alabama was voted the 1961 Associated Press national football champion today, a goal set for the Crimson Tide by master builder Paul (Bear) Bryant.

In the final poll of board members, defense-minded Alabama drew 452 of a possible 480 points to edge Big Ten champion Ohio State which collected 436.

Coach Bryant's eleven concluded a perfect season by crushing Auburn 34-0 Saturday, their fifth straight shutout, and will face ninth-ranked Arkansas in the Sugar Bowl. "Bama is riding a 17-game winning streak."

Texas vaulted over Louisiana State into third spot, 348 points to 335. Mississippi, Minnesota, Colorado, Michigan State, Arkansas and Utah State complete the top 10 selected on the basis of 10 points for a first-place vote, nine for second and so forth.

Bryant, the "other end" from Don Hutson in 1934, returned to his alma mater four years ago. As he had done previously at Maryland, Kentucky and Texas A&M, Bryant inherited a loser but quickly converted it into a winner.

Though this is the first national crown for Alabama in the 25 years of the AP poll, it is the third for a Southeastern Conference team in the past five seasons.

The Tide's seventh unbeaten, untied campaign—first since the 1945 unit led by Harry Gilmer—is built on a grudging defense as was that of Auburn (1957) and LSU (1958). Alabama led the nation in defense against scoring, allowing only 22 points, as well as in total defense and rushing defense yardage. Bryant's boys surrendered two touchdowns on passes, one on the ground, a field goal and a conversion kick.

Bryant, a superb recruiter and harsh taskmaster, did not relent until the ninth game of the 10-game schedule. When his charges whipped Georgia Tech 10-0, Bear said: "They convinced me they are a great team."

- The final poll results with first-place votes in parentheses:
1. Alabama (26)
 2. Ohio State (20)
 3. Texas
 4. Mississippi (1)
 5. Minnesota
 6. Michigan State
 7. Colorado
 8. Arkansas
 9. Utah State

Patterson Knocks Out Canadian

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

TORONTO (AP) — Heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson's fourth round knockout of lion-hearted Tom McNeeley Jr., in a wild, eight-knockdown brawl and Sonny Liston's dynamic one-punch blitz of Albert Westphal stirred up the possibility today of a $10-million showdown between the two victors.

The battle of the Sixties may not come off soon. Although Patterson, according to those very close to him, wants it badly, Liston hungers for it, and promoters Al and Tom Bolan, among others, desire it, cautious Cus D'Amato, the champ's manager, is in no hurry.

More to Cus' liking for the next fight is Henry Cooper, the British heavyweight champion, who meets contender Zora Folley of Chandler, Ariz., in London tonight. That's what D'Amato told the Associated Press.

Patterson, unmarked and very fresh after his victory Monday night, declined to answer when asked if he would give Liston a crack at the title. He merely pointed to his manager.

"Liston can have a fight next week if he wants it," said D'Amato. "He knows what he must do to get it. It is up to him. That is all I can say."

He declined to elaborate. Patterson said he would like to fight again early next year.

Liston, after flattening Westphal with one right hand to the jaw in 1:58 of the first round at Philadelphia's Convention Hall, said "I'm ready for him right now."

"He's been scared of me for more than a year and a half," said Liston, the reinstated No. 1 contender from Philadelphia who has had several scrapes with the law.

The Patterson-McNeeley wingding in which Patterson went down on a so-called slip, at Maple Leaf Gardens, and the Liston-Westphal quickie formed a closed-circuit television double-header that was shown in about 150 theatres and arenas in the United States and Canada. It was also beamed to homes in 51 community antenna community systems.

Irving B. Kahn, president of TelePrompTer, which handles the ancillary rights (TV, radio, movies), estimated that he could line up 1,500,000 seats at an average $5 a head for a Patterson-Liston fight. The gate at a place like New York's Yankee Stadium could produce a $2.5-million gross at a $100 top, experts figured.

The Patterson-McNeeley scrap was a thriller from the very start. There were so many knockdowns and slips that arguments raged as to whether the former Michigan State football tackle was down eight, nine or ten times, and whether Patterson actually was dropped or slipped in the fourth round.

The Associated Press count had McNeeley down eight times and where he was given the mandatory eight-counts, and twice on slips which might have been knockdowns.

Collier was nosed out for top end honors by Bob Moses of Texas and Johnny Burrell of Rice. Don Talbert of Texas and Robert Johnston of Rice held down the first team tackle spots and Ray Schoenke of SMU and Johnny Treadwell of Texas were named at guard, besides Garrett. Garrett and Treadwell tied in points.

Alworth and Texas halfback James Saxton were the only unanimous choices on this year's team. With them in the first backfield are quarterback Mike Cotton of Texas and fullback Roland in the second unit backfield.

Alworth Head All-Stars of the SWC

DALLAS (AP) — Arkansas halfback Lance Alworth nailed down his second All-Southwest Conference berth this year and took six of his teammates into the record books with him on the second team in an honorable mention.

With Alworth on the first team was Dean Garrett, the hard-hitting guard from Bunton whose greatest play came on defense as a shoot-the-gap linebacker.

End Jimmy Collier, who made All-Southwest Conference last year, missed by one point this season and was on the second team, along with tackle John Childress and quarterback George McKinney.

On the honorable mention list were two other fine Porker linemen, tackle Jerry Mazzanti and guard Ray Trail.

When you look closely at the first 11 men, you find that four of them are Arkansas born or bred. Besides Garrett and Alworth, who hail from Brookhaven, Miss., there are tackle Robert Johnston of Rice and center Bill Hicks of Baylor.

Johnston, from Pine Bluff, and Hicks, from Little Rock Central, came from a bumper crop of Arkansas high school talent in 1957. Hicks went to Baylor because of denominational and family ties and Johnston went to Rice because of his academic specialization.

It's a great showing for the Razorbacks.

Collier was nosed out for top end honors by Bob Moses of Texas and Johnny Burrell of Rice.

Don Talbert of Texas and Robert Johnston of Rice held down the first team tackle spots and Ray Schoenke of SMU and Johnny Treadwell of Texas were named at guard, besides Garrett. Garrett and Treadwell tied in points.

Alworth and Texas halfback James Saxton were the only unanimous choices on this year's team. With them in the first backfield are quarterback Mike Cotton of Texas and fullback Roland in the second unit backfield.

Delight Tips Blevins in a Thriller

Coach Bobby Daniels' senior boys basketball team lost their first game of the season as Blevins bowed to Delight by a 60-58 score. The Hornets now have a 9-1 record.

Harold Smith led the losers with 24 points followed by Harris and Honeycutt with 13 each, Carnich 6 and York 2.

Blent hit for 16, Avery and Campbell 13 each and Humphrey 10 for Delight.

Lance First Choice of the 49ers

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — If Arkansas halfback Lance Alworth plays professional football, he indicates that he will—it will be in the San Francisco Bay area.

The San Francisco 49ers of the National Football League drafted him Monday in the first round. Last week, the Oakland Raiders of the American Football League drafted him in the second round.

Alworth said Monday "This is a real honor, the kind you don't expect." He said. The 178-pound speedster said he had no preference between the two pro clubs and would take the offer he thinks is best for him.

He'll see San Francisco in January when he goes to Honolulu to play in the Hula Bowl All-Star game Jan. 7 by then, he probably will have begun negotiations with officials of both teams.

Both teams have contacted him, he said, "But I can't sign anything until after we play in the Sugar Bowl." He said he may not sign then if he decides to play college baseball in the spring.

And there's still a prospect of a professional diamond career. He was approached by several major league scouts after playing in high school, then planned for the Porker nine in his sophomore year. He missed last season with a shoulder injury.

Two Razorback linemen also were drafted by the NFL Monday. Tackle Jerry Mazzanti was drafted by Philadelphia and Tackle John Childress was drafted by Washington.

Porkers Down Missouri in Fayetteville

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The Arkansas Razorback basketball team came to life under the leadership of senior guard Jerry Carlton Monday and scrambled to an impressive 72-68 victory over Missouri in their home opener.

Carlton's scoring —21 points—was exceeded only by his defensive wizardry. He stole the ball under the Arkansas basket four times, twice in the last two minutes after the Tigers had rallied and cut the lead to two points.

Arkansas Coach Glen Rose was encouraged by the showing of his young, somewhat inexperienced team. "We looked a little rugged, but it was a great team effort," he said. "Our best job so far; and we couldn't ask for better effort."

He said the Hogs needed to improve their defense.

Perry Turlington scored 12 points in six minutes in the first half and Missouri jumped into the lead. But Arkansas battled back and the lead changed hands 13 times and the score was tied six times before the Hogs got ahead to stay at 47-46 on a free throw by Jim Wilson.

Turlington led Missouri with 16 points and Wayne Hollrah scored 13.

Arkansas' fine junior forwards, Larry Wofford and Tommy Boyer, scored 16 and 15 points, respectively. Boyer wore a halloween-like face mask to protect the nose he broke a week ago in practice. He also had suffered a gash on his face. Wofford had been hobbled by a charley horse.

Missouri went to a pressing man-to-man defense in the last nine minutes and that was when Carlton grabbed the ball four times, breaking up Tiger plays under the basket.

The Razorbacks meet North Texas State in Denton, Tex., Friday night. Arkansas is 1-1.

JFK to Visit Football Hall of Fame

By WHITNEY SHOEMAKER

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy, who never made the varsity in his schooldays, kicks off a busy travel schedule today with a trip to New York to be honored with greats of the game by the National Football Hall of Fame.

Kennedy takes off from National Airport early in the afternoon on a four-day journey that also will bring him before the National Association of Manufacturers in New York and the AFL-CIO and Young Democrats in Miami Beach before he gets back to Washington on Friday.

The New York-Florida venture is the first of three trips anticipated this month. The White House announced Monday Kennedy would meet British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan at Bermuda on Dec. 21-22.

Kennedy also is expected to visit Colombia and Venezuela in mid-December on what would be his first flight south of the border since taking office.

In New York, Kennedy will receive a gold medal from the National Football Foundation as eight headline players of yesterday and two coaches are inducted into the Hall of Fame. Former Presidents Dwight D. Eisenhower and Herbert Hoover were similarly honored in the past.

Kennedy will set forth his tariff and trade proposals at a National Association of Manufacturers luncheon Wednesday. The administration is expected to seek broad powers from Congress to negotiate reciprocal tariff cuts with other nations. The effect of
